Detailed description: This image shows the first page of a drum score for the song 'In Too Deep' by Sum 41. The score is written for a 4/4 time signature with a tempo of 116 beats per minute. It consists of seven staves of music. The first staff begins with a double bar line, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a '2' indicating the second measure. Above the first staff, there are two measures of notation with '9X' above them, representing a 9-measure drum fill. The notation includes various drum symbols: 'x' for cymbals, 'o' for snare, and '7' for hi-hat. The score features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some triplet markings (indicated by a '3' over a group of notes). The notation is arranged in a standard drum score format, with the right hand (snare and cymbals) on the top staff and the left hand (bass drum and hi-hat) on the bottom staff of each system.

Sum 41 - In Too Deep. 3/3.

The image displays a musical score for the song "In Too Deep" by Sum 41. The score is arranged in a standard three-staff format: guitar (top), bass (middle), and drums (bottom). The time signature is 4/4. The guitar part features a complex rhythmic pattern of eighth notes, often with palm muting (indicated by 'x' marks above the notes). The bass line consists of a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The drum part is a driving rock beat, primarily using quarter and eighth notes, with occasional triplets. The score includes various musical notations such as repeat signs, first and second endings, and triplet markings. The piece concludes with a final double bar line.
