

Script (Dialogue extrait de "The Big Sleep" de Raymond Chandler)

"Where's Carmen now?"

"She's at home. She was sick last night. She's still in bed, I think."

"Did she go out last night?"

"No. I was out but the servants say she wasn't. I was down at Las O Lindas, playing roulette at Eddie Mars' club."

"So you like roulette. You would."

"Yes I like roulette. All the Sternwoods like losing games like roulette. The Sternwoods love money."

"What was Owen doing last night with your car?"

"Nobody knows. He took it without permission. We always let him take a car on his night off, but last night wasn't his night off."
